Beef heart is lean and high in protein: about 37 g protein and 4 g net carbs a serve, more than five days' vitamin B12 and rich in iron and selenium, marinated in chilli, garlic and vinegar.

Diet notes: Low carb (4.3 g net carbs) but not keto: 23% of the energy is from fat, and keto meals get about 60% or more.

Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Trim the fat and sinew off the beef heart, then cut the clean meat into small, even pieces for the skewers. 0:12
2. Make the marinade: in a bowl mix the ají paste with salt, cumin, garlic paste, black pepper and oregano rubbed between your palms. Stir in the vinegar and bay leaves, taste and adjust the salt. 0:32
3. Pour the marinade over the heart, mix well, cover and refrigerate for at least 4 hours, or better overnight. 2:05
4. Thread 3–4 pieces of marinated heart onto each bamboo skewer. 3:40
5. Cook the skewers on a very hot ridged grill pan (or a charcoal grill), turning them, until browned on all sides, a few minutes a side. 4:05

> Tip Serves 3 (our estimate: 3 skewers each). The cook plates them with mushrooms and snow peas tossed in olive oil, garlic and oregano and grilled, plus small boiled potatoes in their skins; potatoes and corn are the usual street sides.

The method is a summary in our words, in English — the video (in Spanish) shows every step.
