Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Make the kroeung: pound the lemongrass to a fine paste in a mortar, then pound in the galangal, fingerroot, turmeric, garlic and shallot one at a time, and finish with the lime leaves. Use 3 tbsp for this dish and freeze the rest. 0:27
2. Soak the dried chilli in warm water for about 15 minutes, drain, remove the stem and seeds and mince to a paste. 4:05
3. In a bowl mix the 3 tbsp kroeung, chilli paste, coconut milk, fish sauce, sugar and shrimp paste, breaking up the shrimp paste. Add the fish to marinate, fold in the eggs and a pinch of salt. 4:39
4. Line two banana-leaf cups or 1¼ cups ramekins with the pea shoots or spinach and spoon in the fish mixture, filling them about halfway. 5:38
5. Steam over gently simmering water, covered, for about 10 minutes until lightly set. Pour coconut cream over the top, cover and steam 10 minutes more until firm. Garnish with lime leaves. 7:04

> Tip Serve with rice. Salty as made: about 1,400–1,600 mg sodium a serve from the fish sauce and shrimp paste; 2 tsp fish sauce cuts it. Chicken or prawns work too. The written recipe uses ½ tsp shrimp paste and 1 tsp kosher salt.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
