Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Season the peeled prawns with the ⅓ tsp salt and a few dashes of white pepper and mix well. 1:13
2. Stir the cornflour into the 1½ tbsp water until smooth. Beat it into the eggs with ½ tsp salt and a few dashes of white pepper. 1:44
3. Heat a little oil in a wok over medium heat and fry the prawns just until no grey remains — about 90% cooked. Tip them straight into the bowl of beaten eggs. 2:40
4. Turn the heat to medium or medium-low and add a little more oil. Give the eggs a quick whisk and pour everything in. 3:30
5. Gently push the set egg from the edges towards the middle so the liquid runs underneath; lower the heat if the wok gets too hot. Stop while the eggs are still soft and silky — don't overcook. 3:44
6. Turn off the heat, scatter over the spring onion and slide onto a plate. 4:34

> Tip The cook eats it with steamed rice; for keto, serve it with stir-fried greens instead. The cornflour-water mix is what keeps the eggs silky without milk.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
