Allergens found in the listed ingredients: Crustacea, Molluscs, Fish, Celery. Worked out from the ingredient list, not tested. Stock, sauces, spice mixes and other packaged foods can contain allergens, so always read the labels on what you buy. If you have a food allergy, don't rely on this.

Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Heat the olive oil in a large pot over medium heat and sauté the onion, garlic, celery and both peppers for 4–6 minutes until lightly browned. 2:36
2. Crush the canned tomatoes with your hands. 3:24
3. Add the fish stock and tomatoes and simmer gently for 20 minutes. Season well with salt and pepper. 3:45
4. Meanwhile bring a large pot of salted water to the boil. Cook the clams for 3–4 minutes, add the mussels for 3–4 minutes more (all the shells should open; throw away any that don't), then drain and add them to the stew. 5:30
5. Boil the prawns, crab and squid for 2–3 minutes, then add them to the stew and simmer on low for 3–4 minutes. 6:12
6. Ladle into bowls and scatter with parsley and, if you like, chilli flakes. 6:43

> Tip Serves 6. Use what the fishmonger has: halibut or sea bass work too. Clams and mussels must be alive (closed, or closing when tapped) before cooking. Sourdough for dipping is classic.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
