Method

TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Grate the zucchini on the large holes of a box grater, toss with 1 tsp salt in a colander and leave 10 minutes. 0:18
2. Squeeze the zucchini as dry as you can with your hands or a cloth (you should have 3½–4 cups). The drier it is, the crispier the fritters. 0:40
3. Stir in the beaten eggs and green onions. Mix the flour, ½ tsp salt, pepper and baking powder, add to the zucchini and stir until combined. 0:46
4. Heat 2 tbsp olive oil in a large heavy pan over medium heat. Drop in heaped tablespoons of batter, flatten slightly and cook 3–5 minutes a side until golden. Add a little more oil between batches and lower the heat if they brown too fast. 1:10
5. Serve warm, with a spoonful of sour cream if you like. 1:40

> Tip The video uses 1 cup flour; the cook later reduced it to ¾ cup (used here). Keep cooked fritters warm in a low oven between batches. Leftovers reheat well in a dry pan.
