Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Toss the almonds and peanuts with the maple syrup, spread them in the air fryer basket (or on a baking tray), sprinkle with salt and roast for 10 minutes at 340 °F. Let them cool and crisp up. 1:20
2. Break the chocolate into pieces and melt it in the microwave on low, stirring every 30 seconds. Stop before it's fully melted and stir until smooth. 2:18
3. Keep a few nuts aside for the top and stir the rest into the chocolate until they're all coated. 2:42
4. Spread the mixture on a tray lined with baking paper, press the reserved nuts on top and freeze for 30 minutes (or chill longer in the fridge) until set. 3:00
5. Break or cut into bite-size pieces and keep in the fridge or freezer. 3:32

> Tip The cook gets about 22 pieces (107 kcal each); we count 2 pieces a serve (our estimate). She uses 85% chocolate; use at least 70%. Add ¼ cup toasted oats and ¼ cup raisins for energy bites.
