Method

TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Heat the oven to 175°C. Measure the egg whites (3 tbsp per white) into a large jug or bowl with a pouring spout. 1:10
2. Add the garlic powder, salt, pepper and hot sauce and whisk until well combined. 1:25
3. Finely dice the red pepper (roasted peppers taste more like the café version) and finely chop the spinach and green onions. 2:13
4. Add the vegetables, Monterey Jack and cottage cheese to the egg whites and stir until just combined. 2:40
5. Spray a newish, unscratched 2.8 L muffin pan generously with cooking spray and fill each cup ¾ full, stirring the mix every few cups so the add-ins don't sink. 3:36
6. Bake 20–22 minutes, until set and no longer jiggly — they puff up around 15 minutes but need at least 18 to cook through. 4:05
7. Cool to room temperature and store in a container for the week, or serve warm with a sprinkle of parsley or extra green onion. 4:26

> Tip Makes 12 bites; we count 3 as a serve (our estimate). For a smoother, fluffier bite, blend the egg whites, cottage cheese and seasonings for 10–20 seconds first. Keeps 4–5 days in the fridge.
