Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Cover the lentils with plenty of cold water in a saucepan, bring to a boil without salt, then drain. This makes the soup lighter and easier to digest. 0:37
2. In a large pot, soften the carrots and onion in ¼ cup olive oil over medium heat for about 10 minutes, then stir in the garlic until fragrant. 1:13
3. Add the lentils, bay leaves, tomatoes, salt, pepper and oregano, and enough water to cover the lentils by at least ¾–1¼ inch. Bring to a boil, then cover and simmer on low about 30 minutes until tender. 1:45
4. Taste and adjust the seasoning. For a heartier, traditional soup, Dimitra simmers in ½ cup rice with 2 cups more water for 15–20 minutes (optional, not in the numbers). 2:13
5. Serve in bowls with a splash of red wine vinegar and a drizzle of olive oil. 3:12

> Tip Serves about 6 (our estimate; Dimitra's card doesn't say). Leaving out the rice keeps it lower in carbs; Dimitra sometimes crumbles feta on top (also not in the numbers). Freezes for up to 3 months.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
