Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Toss the chicken with the marinade ingredients: oil, garlic, thyme, wiri wiri pepper, salt, black pepper, curry powder and garam masala. Cover and refrigerate for at least 1 hour, ideally overnight. 0:12
2. Heat the 2 tbsp oil in a karahi or large pot over medium heat and soften the onion with a pinch of the salt. Add the garlic and cook for a minute. 2:04
3. Stir in the curry powder, garam masala, geera, turmeric, scallions and wiri wiri peppers. Cook on low-medium heat for 10–15 minutes, adding a splash of hot water and scraping the bottom whenever it gets dry, so nothing burns. 2:39
4. Add the chicken and toss well. Cover and cook for 20–30 minutes, stirring now and then; uncover once the juices run out and cook them down, scraping up the browned bits. 4:18
5. Add the potato and 350 ml water, cover and simmer for about 30 minutes until the potato is tender and the gravy has thickened. Adjust the salt and scatter over the scallions. 6:03

> Tip Serves 6 (our estimate). Chef Dev serves it on boiled chow mein noodles with a quick salted cabbage, carrot and parsley slaw. For bunjal (dry) curry, add just a splash of water and cook it right down.
