1. Pat the prawns dry and toss with the salt, paprika, pepper and 2 teaspoons of oil. Cut the broccoli into florets and dice the garlic and ginger. 0:32
2. Stir the water, sugar, oyster sauce, soy sauce, hoisin, dark soy and cornstarch together in a bowl. 1:40
3. Heat a wok until smoking, swirl in the oil and stir-fry the prawns for a couple of minutes until just pink but still slightly translucent inside. Lift them out, leaving the oil behind. 2:27
4. Over medium heat, fry the garlic, ginger, chillies and broccoli for 1–2 minutes. Add 2 tbsp water at the side of the wok, cover and steam briefly until the broccoli is just tender. 3:10
5. Pour in the sauce, return the prawns and toss for a couple of minutes until the sauce thickens and the prawns are cooked through. 3:53
