Method

TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Heat the oven to 175 °C and line a baking sheet with baking paper. 0:19
2. Break the peeled bananas into a large bowl and mash with the back of a fork for a minute or two, until almost smooth like a purée. 0:43
3. Stir in the oats until the mixture turns thick and sticky, then stir in the chocolate chips. 1:01
4. Scoop about 1½ tbsp of dough per cookie onto the sheet (about 15) and flatten each one with wet fingers, as they won't spread in the oven. 1:54
5. Bake for 13–15 minutes, until lightly golden at the edges. Cool on the sheet for a couple of minutes before lifting off. 2:51

> Tip Makes about 15 cookies; a serve is 1 (two have about 6 g of added sugar). Use dairy-free chips for a vegan cookie. Swap the chips for 120 ml raisins, or add cinnamon and a splash of vanilla. Rolled oats give a chunkier cookie.
